ICU's Privacy Policy

We shall process personal data primarily to fulfill our obligations according to the applicable data protection regulation and the requirements placed on us by our customers.

This means that:

- Our starting point is not to process more personal data than is necessary for our purposes, and we shall always strive to never use privacy-sensitive data.
- All handling of personal data is mainly carried out internally and primarily by our staff for inquiries, quotations, agreements, training, customer service, and assignments.
- All personnel have the training and the information required for handling personal data.
- We have the procedures and a secure IT environment required to protect the personal data handled by us.
- We process personal data with the greatest care and security so that they do not become accessible to unauthorized persons
- In cases where we hire a third party who performs work for us where we have disclosed personal data, they must have the same or higher security requirements that we set for ourselves. The handling must also be governed by means of written agreements.
